

PURPLE PROFILES of COURAGE

Name: Pam Parker

My Connection to the Cause: I have lost someone to Alzheimer's disease.

My Inspiration: My father Joe

How I Stay Strong: I have found strength through my faith, family, friends and workers at the care facility where my father now lives.

My Advice to Others: There are so many people and resources out there that can help you be more equipped as you walk this journey with your loved one. Educate yourself so you can make the most of your time with the person you love.

My #ENDALZ Battle Cry: "Fight for future memories!"
